

Donor Bill of Rights

The Dream Factory, Inc. is committed to respecting the privacy of our donors. Donors can expect the following from The Dream Factory, Inc.:

- To be informed of our mission, of the way The Dream Factory, Inc. intends to use donated resources and the ability of The Dream Factory, Inc. to use donations for their intended purposes, and
- To be informed of the members of The Dream Factory, Inc. governing Board of Directors and to expect the Board of Directors to exercise good judgement in the stewardship of the funds and resources, and
- To have access to the most recent financial statements, and
- To be assured that gifts and donations will be used for the purposes for which they were given, and
- To receive appropriate recognition and acknowledgement, and
- To be assured that information concerning donations is handled with confidentiality, and
- To be informed that those seeking donations are either volunteers or employees of The Dream Factory, Inc., and
- To be treated in a professional manner in all interactions with individuals representing The Dream Factory, Inc., and
- To feel free to ask questions prior to and when making a donation and all responses will be prompt, honest and truthful.

This applies to all information received by the Dream Factory, both on-line and off-line, on any platform (including the Dream Factory website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written or oral communication.

Sources: AFP, AHP, CASE, Giving Institute 2015, Charity Navigator